Show 1, Mar 10-Mar 26, GEEZERS-by Tommy Lee Johnston Geezers introduces us to some beautiful and wonderful old people who are enjoying their golden years in a retirement home. Jack, a pathologically shy, 27-year-old man, begins a job there helping the seniors with their daily needs. But it's the "geezer" who wind up helping Jack with his needs. On his road to an epiphany, Jack learns from the old folks that he must break out of his comfort zone to achieve anything in life. A funny, heartwarming drama about growth and wisdom, learning and loving, life and death.

Show 2, May 12-May 28, "Our Miss Brooks"-By R.J. Mann. Adapted by Christopher Sergel. (NEW!)

Show 3, Jul 14-Jul 30, "Harper Lee's"-To Kill a Mockingbird-Dramatized by Christopher Sergel Scout, a young girl in a quiet southern town, is about to experience dramatic events that will affect the rest of her life. Set in 1935, this play illustrates the social issues of this time period as the black people of a small southern community have a special feeling about Scout's father. In her youthful innocence, she does not know why. A few of her white friends are inexplicably hostile and Scout doesn't understand this either. This dramatization of the past is a touching classic tale and is a meaningful work of art.

Show 4, Sept 15-Oct 1, Tea For Three Lady Bird, Pat & Betty-by Eric H. Weinberger and Elaine Bromka What is it like for a woman when her husband becomes the president of the United States—and she is suddenly thrust into the spotlight? This show reveals the hopes, fears and loves of Lady Bird Johnson, Pat Nixon and Betty Ford. Secrets are spilled about their early years, their husbands' rise to power, their romances with the men, their unique paths as wives in the White House. Each of the three portraits becomes intimate, by degrees, as the women wrestle with what Pat Nixon called "the hardest unpaid job in the world."

Show 5, Nov 10-Nov 26, Dracula-by John Mattered, based on the book by Bram Stoker Practical and playable, this stage adaptation is closely based on the original, presenting the frightening story that made this a horror classic. The mysterious Count Dracula has gone to England where he is living on a large estate next to an insane asylum. This is a thrilling drama with several "twists" which will keep the excitement "lingering"!

Show 6, Dec 8-Dec 17, Our Special Christmas Show!
